FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	§
	§
V.	§	CRIMINAL NO. H-06-157
EZEKIEL FERNANDEZ A/K/A FALCON	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the Government moved for detention in this case. Defendant waived his right to a detention hearing. That waiver is entered in the record as Dkt.No.12. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

[ ] A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

[ ] (1) The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is

[ ] a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

[ ] an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

[ ] an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. ( ) § 801 et seq. ( ) § 951 et seq. ( ) § 955(a).

[ ] a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

[ ] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[ ] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[ ] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 45-year old United States Citizen. He reports that his mother is deceased and his estranged from his father and all siblings except one brother. Defendant is currently incarcerated in Harris County jail and does not have a residence to which he could return if released on bond because his estranged wife is selling the residence he owns with her. Defendant reports that if released he could reside with his brother in Houston, which is where defendant's two children and estranged wife reside along with his brother's own wife and numerous children. This family history is uncorroborated. Case agents report that defendant rented a garage apartment under an assumed name, Ben Rios.
2. Defendant reports that he has been unemployed since 1995 but receives disability benefits due to post-traumatic stress disorder, bi-polar disorder, and various back and knee injuries. He further reports that he served in the U.S. Army until being given an "other than honorable discharge after being charged with desertion." Defendant's current mental health is questionable.
3. Defendant is charged with possession of child pornography in violation of Title 18 U.S.C. §§ 2256(2) and 1030(e)(1), a charge with a potential penalty of not more than 20 years confinement. The instant offense is considered a crime of violence. Case agents report that fraudulent identity documents such as social security cards and birth certificates were found stored on defendant's computer.
4. Defendant has a criminal history that includes prior convictions for driving under the influence, possession of obscene material, theft, and currently faces state charges of engaging in criminal activity and forgery of a financial government instrument.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on May 18, 2006.
